

Synchronoss Becomes Microsoft Gold-Certified Partner and Improves Collaboration for The Extended Enterprise with Expanded Microsoft Office 365 Integration

May 11, 2017

BRIDGEWATER, N.J.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--May 11, 2017-- Synchronoss Technologies, a leading provider of content collaboration and mobility solutions for regulated and IP-intensive industries, announced today that it has achieved Gold-Certified Partner status with Microsoft and delivered new integrated solutions with their Microsoft Office 365 productivity tools. To achieve a Gold Certified Partner status—the highest level within the Microsoft Certified Partners program—Synchronoss received top marks in customer satisfaction and invested in certifying its technical and support staff on Microsoft Azure and related technologies.

“As the market leader in delivering solutions that secure and enable our customer’s valuable content-centric business processes, we are continually looking for ways to support today’s extended enterprises,” said David Schuette, Executive Vice President, Enterprise, at Synchronoss. “Microsoft is a strategic vendor for our customers and we’re proud to further our collaboration with them to deliver integrated solutions that meet our joint customers’ security and productivity needs.”

In addition to attaining Gold-Certified Partner status, Synchronoss also announced that it has joined Microsoft’s Cloud Storage Partner Program. Synchronoss supports Microsoft’s commitment to enable customers to work more seamlessly and efficiently with Office 365. By joining the Cloud Storage Partner Program, Synchronoss has delivered new integration with its Intralinks VIA® platform to enable users to edit and co-edit Intralinks managed content within Office Online. This integration provides a new option which complements the existing Synchronoss innovative, secure integration of Intralinks VIA and Office Online within Synchronoss datacenters.

Rob Howard, director of Office 365 Ecosystem, Microsoft Corp. said, “We are excited to have Synchronoss’ participation in the Cloud Storage Partner Program to extend Microsoft Office 365 productivity features to Synchronoss’ users and their Intralinks VIA platform.”

Intralinks VIA integration for co-editing with Office 365 through the Cloud Storage Partner Program joins the existing Intralinks VIA Office Online integration and is immediately available for customer use.
