Synchronoss Personal Cloud Recognized for Exceptional Innovation

BRIDGEWATER, N.J., June 16, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Synchronoss Technologies, Inc. ("Synchronoss" or the "Company") (Nasdaq: SNCR) announced today that TMC, a global, integrated media company, has awarded Synchronoss Personal Cloud a 2022 Product of the Year Award, presented by Cloud Computing Magazine.

The 2022 Cloud Computing Product of the Year Award recognizes vendors with the most innovative and beneficial cloud products and services that have been available to deploy within the past year.

"It is an honor to be recognized by TMC for our Synchronoss Personal Cloud platform," said Jeff Miller, President and CEO of Synchronoss. "This further demonstrates the commitment our innovative solution plays to create personalized experiences that manage, share, and safeguard all types of digital content across an array of devices for millions of customers worldwide."

Synchronoss Personal Cloud is a white-label platform that enables users to backup, sync, and organize photos, videos, contacts and more between any device and the cloud. The Synchronoss Personal Cloud offering is currently integrated into a range of mobile and wireline service plans as well as other bundled offerings. The platform provides an easy way to securely manage, share, and safeguard all types of digital content. A feature-rich personal cloud offering gives service providers the opportunity to create new services, provide more value for subscribers, build brand loyalty and bolster their bottom lines.

"Congratulations to Synchronoss for being honored with a Cloud Computing Product of the Year Award," said Rich Tehrani, CEO, TMC. "Synchronoss Personal Cloud is truly an innovative product and is amongst the best solutions available within the past twelve months. I look forward to continued excellence from Synchronoss in 2022 and beyond."
